

Contents

Translating the Bible: is the news good or bad? 3

Keeping the faith in Costa Rica 6
 Bringing a smile to the faces of children in need (Costa Rica) 7
 'I know what it is like to be a streetchild' (Costa Rica) 9
 Clowning around opens doors for the Bible (Costa Rica) 10 ►
 Bible Society hopes to reach immigrants (Costa Rica) 11
 'Our heart belongs to the Bible Society': volunteers share in Bible work in Panama 12
 Bible teaching flourishes on the Panama Canal 14
 Rural pastor serves his congregation on foot (Panama) 15
 He is blind – and serves the Lord full time! (Panama) 15
 New Bible edition accompanies celebrations of Panama's independence 16

Working to bring hope where it is scarce (Zimbabwe) 17 ►
 'I want to work, please help me': the casualties of Zimbabwe's collapsing economy 19
 Smile of Mercy (Zimbabwe) 19
 Three services of dedication mark arrival of Chibemba translation
 (Zambia) 20
 Village priest's wish is fulfilled (Eritrea) 21

Bible helps heal traumatised children in Phnom Penh orphanage
 (Cambodia) 23
 Society produces 150,000 leaflets for national anti-measles campaign
 (Philippines) 25

The Bible: a force for unity among Poland's churches 26 ►
 'Hope for the future, joy for the present, understanding for the past' (Poland) 28
 The tracks of Birkenau Railway (Poland) 29
 Young and old begin to understand the Bible in Egypt 30
 New Bible centre in cultural heart of Vienna (Austria) 31
 Competition brings Bible into Austrian schools 31

Latest News Summaries from Iraq, Myanmar, Pakistan 32

World

Americas

Africa

Asia-Pacific

Europe-Middle East

Latest News

"When I was free I did not know what the Bible was like"

(Dmitri, a teenage prisoner from Sambir, Ukraine)

Many prisoners are discovering the message of the Bible thanks to the work of Bible Societies around the world. This year, Bible Societies are investing more than US$300,000 in over 40 projects to show people in prisons what the Bible is like. In a few months' time, World Report will include a special section on prison work featuring life-changing stories from this vital part of our ministry.

Please see pages 10 and 24 for front-page photo captions